

Julee E. Hickcox
Flute/Piccolo, Roanoke Symphony Orchestra
Personnel Contractor, Roanoke Symphony Orchestra
Phone: 540-985-9112
Email: juleepic@aol.com

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to provide my personal recommendation for Elizabeth Stevens and “That Wedding”, bridal consulting. My wedding seemed so far away...six months, oops, three months, no...oh no; it’s in two weeks!! This is what I faced in November of 2007. I hired Liz in March, at which time we discussed the caterer, photographer, cake designer and other vendors. I was going to be one of those brides who would “handle most of it myself”.

Thank goodness for Liz and her detail-oriented commitment to this wedding! She made sure all the vendors were lined up and on the same page. She made sure I had a to-do list along with a timeline in which to get my to-dos done. Liz was ALWAYS one step ahead. The more I worked with her, the less I worried about “That Wedding” of mine. She was truly AMAZING!

Not only does Liz get you organized, she also has a fabulous eye for décor. She made lovely suggestions and was “hands on” in the decorating process. I couldn’t have dreamed of a more beautiful wedding then the one she helped create. In addition, the evening of the ceremony rehearsal and day of the wedding and reception went off without a hitch. Again, Liz was everywhere making sure the wedding party had everything we needed and that we were on schedule from ceremony to the last dance.

I owe Liz and “That Wedding” a lifetime of thanks for the lifetime of memories Chris and I we will have of our very special day.

THANK YOU Liz...“That Wedding” has my many, kudos!!

Sincerely,

Julee E. Hickcox